We learn from the Portsmouth Daily Globefriend Badger's sprightly sheet-that on Wednesday last, the Board of Directors of the Bay Line of steamers running in connection with the Portsmouth and Roanoke Road, decided to commence another boat of extra accommodations and dimensions, equal, if not superior in comfort and finish, to the North Carolina. The Bay Line is very successful this season. It is the pleasantest line in the summer, and we know the officers and agents of the line to be clever and accommodating.

He also feeleth some for dogs without badges, and marvelled why a dog with a badge should be passed about as a safe, inoffensive and respectable canine animal, from whom hydrophobia is not to be apprehended; whereas, the same dog, without a badge, would be liable to death as an insane, dangerous, contemptible, sneaking, mangey, vagabond, son of a ---- female dog. All these things do seriously puzzle Burr, and it is unpleasant to be so puzzled in such weather.

WM. S. ASHE.... 222 W. F. LEAK..... 142 Ashe's majority 80

This is 18 more than the majority reported for Mr Asee, and swells his aggregate majority in the District to 2156. It is probable that other official corrections of the reputed vote may bring it up to 2200. Mr. Ashe beats Mr. Leak within a trifle of a plague as much as he did Mr. REID, four years ago, although the taking away of Onslow and the addition of Richmond makes over one thousand difference in T. Had there been no such change, Mr. Ashe would have received a majority Comptroller, and Mr. LEMUEL ROBERTS, of Queen of about 3300, the largest ever obtained at a Congressional election in this District.
